

SBTV'S BIG STATS

Tidbits & insights into the spring's best mountain festival

Quest for the Golden Skimmer: 2005 World Pond Skimming Championships

- 2004 World Pond Skimming Champ: Corey Miller, Vail Ski Patrol
- Coveted Prize: Golden Skimmer, $500 cash
- Haute Couture: Lycra, neon and anything flashy is welcomed on this course
- Golden Peak Pond:
 - Distance: 25 yards
 - Depth: 2.5 feet
 - Avg. Water Temp: 24 degrees F
 - Avg. Air Temp: 34 degrees F

Relayin' It: Look Ma's Rocking Relay

- Last Year's Winning Team: Vail Athletic Club
- Disciplines: Ski Biking, Aero-sledding, blind-folded obstacle course, ski boot sprint
- Costume Mania: 2004 winning costume – 'Prom Gone Wrong'
- Average number of slips and slides per team: 8
- Celebrity Judges: To be announced!

Skiing Royalty: Warren Miller Experience

- Years making legendary ski films: 55
- Years co-hosting SBTV: 1
- Warren Miller athletes on site at SBTV: To be announced!
- Number of chances for SBTV participants to star in next year's film: 1 – at the Look Ma's Rockin' Relay!

Sounds of the season: Concerts of Spring Back to Vail

2005 Performers: Mix Master Mike, Toots & The Maytals, Maceo Parker

Past Performers: Blues Traveler, Clarence Clemens, Hazel Miller

Attendance: Nearly 10,000 people in 2004

Ticket Prices: FREE

Locations:

Vail Mountain

Checkpoint Charlie, Vail Village

Gondola Lawn, Lionshead Village