G. LOVE & SPECIAL SAUCE TO KICK OFF SPRING BACK TO VAIL CONCERT LINE-UP ON FRIDAY, APRIL 7, AT FORD PARK

Vail, Colo.—Mar. 23, 2006—G. Love & Special Sauce will pour on their unique blend of funky hip hop blues Friday evening, April 7, as part of Spring Back to Vail's two-week season-ending bash.

Bringing their fresh sound to the mountains for one night of incredible entertainment, G. Love and Special Sauce will perform live at Ford Park under the stars. Foot stompin' G. Love favorites sure to be heard include "Cold Beverages" and "Baby's Got Sauce."

"We're excited to have G. Love in Vail," said James Deighan of Highline Sports and Entertainment, producers of Spring Back to Vail. "G. Love and Special Sauce kick-off a double dosed musical weekend that is not to be missed."

Philly native Garrett Dutton, a.k.a. G. Love, and Special Sauce's James Prescott and Jeffrey Clemens, broke into the limelight with their self-titled debut in 1994. Their hip hop bluesy sound is a fusion of many influences, including John Lee Hooker, Bob Dylan and De La Soul. A decade later, they released their sixth album The Hustle, comprised of reflective songs about love, life and lemonade. Under the Brushfire Records label, G. Love has recently toured with Jack Johnson and Donovan Frankenreiter.
